To Mail Subscribers.

THE FIGURES on the Printed Address indicate the time to which you have paid. For instance: 26Ap61, means paid to the 26th of April, 1861. Subscribers will please examine these labels, as by doing so they will be always posted, and, if they wish to, can renew before the time to which they have paid expires, or detect any error we may make in giving credit, and have the same rectified at once.

We stop all subscriptions when the time paid to runs out—and so paper is sent unless the money accompanies the order.

To the Public.

THE SENTINEL, having double the circulation IN THE CITY, and more than treble OUT OF IT, of any other paper here, renders it far the cheapest and most desirable medium in Milwaukee for all classes of Advertisements.

EVERY BUSINESS MAN who consults his own interest, will avail himself of the columns of THE DAILY SENTINEL,—especially when he can do so at the same prices charged by other papers, and secure more than double the advantage of circulation.

This is no boast, but EVERY WORD TRUE.

THE REPUBLICAN GATHERING ON WEDNESDAY!

The Mass Meeting of the Republican Electors in this (the First) Congressional District of our State, will take place on Wednesday next. The objects of the gathering are, to formally nominate our candidate for Representative, JOHN F. POTTER; to respond to the nominations of LINCOLN and HAMLIN; and to take the necessary steps for a thorough organization of the Republican Party, in every Town and County of the District.

The meeting will convene at 2 o'clock, on Wednesday afternoon, in Albany Hall, and will be addressed by Senator DOOLITTLE, Governor RANDALL, and Attorney-General HOWE, and other distinguished speakers. The Lake Shore, Milwaukee and Watertown, and Milwaukee & Mississippi Railways, will all sell Excursion Tickets to the Convention at half-fare. Let there be a good turn out.

MORE OF HERSCHEL V. JOHNSON'S RECORD.—In the Pittsburg Journal of the 2d inst., we find the following:

"CAPITAL SHOULD OWN ITS LABOR."

"Write it out and look at it, all you laboring and toiling thousands of this State. The Democracy (Heaven save the mark!) at Baltimore have nominated a ticket, on which Johnson, of Georgia, is candidate for Vice President. This man, on the 17th of September, 1856, made a speech in Philadelphia, in which he said:

"We believe capital should own labor; is there any doubt that there must be a laboring class everywhere? In all countries and under every form of social organization there must be a laboring class—a class of men who get their living by the sweat of their brow; and then there must be another class that controls and directs the capital of the country."

We ask our readers, thousands of whom are men whose hands have been hardened by toil, we ask you now, if you can, to vote for a ticket that carries on it the name of a man who can unblushingly, in the capital of this mighty labor saving State, stand up and say that the owners of our foundries, rolling mills, coal mines and farms should own the sinews and the souls of those who "earn their bread by the sweat of their brow."

And moreover, this vile calumniator of honester men than he dares to be, puts his argument boldly upon the ground that capital should own its labor because it is labor!"

FAREWELL OF J. B. GOUGH IN ENGLAND.—The farewell meeting of Mr. J. B. Gough, in London, was presided over by the Earl of Shaftesbury, and on the platform were the Rev. Newman Hall, the Rev. Hugh Allen, the Rev. Mr. Hanny, the Rev. Dr. Campbell, Mr. S. Gurney, M. P., Mr. Ball, M. P., Mr. George Cruickshank, Mr. Smith Dawson, and a large number of the friends of philanthropy and progress. Mr. George Cruickshank, seconded by Mr. S. Harrison, moved a vote of thanks to the noble chairman, who, in acknowledging the compliment, passed a high elogium on Mr. Gough for the success which had attended his labors in this country, in the cause of temperance, and in the name of the meeting thanked him for his exertions. Mr. Gough, in reply, stated that, while he felt called upon to return to America at the present time, in order to labor in the same cause in which his energies had been devoted in this country, he hoped in the providence of God that he might still have another opportunity of coming among them, and helping them in that cause which he believed to be for the good of mankind, and to which he had devoted his life.

MORRISSEY TO MEET HEENAN.—The Troy Budget, of Saturday last, has the following paragraph in reference to John Morrissey, who does not propose to decline the challenge of the impatiently expected Heenan: "John Morrissey, the pugilist, left for New York last evening, his object being, we believe, to meet Heenan on his return, (the steamer being due to-morrow,) and to see whether that gentleman wishes to back up his recent challenge by money. Morrissey means "business." We were the first, some time since, to announce the fact that a match would probably be made between these men; but such wise-acres as the Troy Times have seen fit to dispute it, and with a bombast, quite as remarkable as it was impudent, endeavored to show that no one except themselves, could announce the fact with any degree of accuracy. Apropos of the above, we understand that arrangements have been on foot, for a day or two past, between 'Abe' Fowler and Morrissey, for the sale to the latter of his beautiful garden and house on the Millville Road, to be used as a sporting house and training ground."

H. V. JOHNSON AT HOME.—We take the following extract from a private letter dated

MACON, Ga., June 30, 1860.

Gov. Johnson our former great Southern Rights advocate, has accepted the nomination for Vice President on the ticket with Mr. Douglas, to the great mortification and disgust of his old friends and admirers in Georgia. He spoke here last night, and all who heard it pronounced it the poorest effort they ever heard from him. When he had spoken about three quarters of an hour, the Breckinridge enthusiasm was so strongly manifested that the Governor stopped and closed his speech by saying: "Minorities had no terrors for him," evidently feeling that his ticket would'nt "go down" in Georgia.—Nashville Union.

FOUR CHILDREN POISONED WITH BLUE INK.—Four children, while playing in the yard of tenement house No. 161 West 28th street, New York, found a bottle containing a small quantity of blue ink. They filled up the bottle with water, and then drank the contents. Two of them, Ann L. Wight and Eugenia L. Cisco, died on Monday. The stomach and intestines were found to be much inflamed, as if by the presence of some powerful irritant.

MR. DICKINSON of New York, who used to be the leader of the New York Hards, but who joined the Softs a few months ago, has now gone back to the Hards, and is supporting Breckinridge and Lane. He is with the Hards and Softs alternately. He is with the Hards when he acts from his heart, and with the Softs when he acts from his head.—Louisville Journal.

A WILD CHILD is roaming through the forests of Iowa, and exciting much discussion among the primitive naturalists of that section of the country. The nearest approach that has been made to its capture was to find the place where it had slept, and the remains of a frog, whereon it had supped.—This latter fact seems very clearly to indicate a French parentage for the young Orson. He probably resembles a "canard."

DOWN TO 1828, every President was taken from the old thirteen States. Now, of the nine candidates for President or Vice President, but one, Mr. Everett, is a citizen of an original State. All five of the candidates for President—Lincoln, Douglas, Bell, Breckinridge and Houston—live in the Mississippi Valley, or near its borders.

The German Republican Press.

From the Illinois State Journal.

It will, doubtless, be of some interest to your readers to learn how many German papers have hoisted the flag of Lincoln and Hamlin. I therefore give you to-day a list of them as complete as possible, but I have doubtless omitted some. Those marked with an * are dailies.

A MASK WELL PRESERVED.—The Gazette des Tribunaux has the following:

"Several of the men employed in a quarry at Montmartre went, a few days ago, to a public house at that place to breakfast, and when they left the landlord detected one in the act of carrying off beneath his apron a bottle of liquor which had not been paid for. He gave him into the custody of a police officer, and the thief was taken before the Commissary of Police of the district. The prisoner on being asked his name said, 'I am Catharine B—l.' 'Catharine! why that is a woman's name.' 'And I am a woman, though for a long time past I have been working as a quarryman, and was previously garcon to a public house keeper.'

Shortly after, one of the quarrymen called to beg that the man might be released, as he had only taken the bottle by joke, and as his companions were ready to pay for it.—'The man! why the prisoner is a woman,' was the answer. 'That can't be,' said the other, 'inasmuch as for more than a year he had slept in the same bed with me, and in a room in which there were several other men; and if he had been a man we should certainly have known it!' The prisoner had, however, been examined, and was ascertained to be a woman.

She stated that some years back she was condemned to two years' imprisonment for robbery at Lyons, and that on her release she assumed male costume. Three years ago she came to Paris, and got employment as garcon in a public house in the Rue de Charonne, and stopped there eight months; during that time she occupied the same bed as her master's son, and he never discovered her real sex. Afterwards she obtained a similar situation at Bercy, and for a year shared the bed of a man, but he also never dreamt that she was a woman.

Lastly she got work in a quarry at Montmartre, and, as stated, slept for a year among men without being suspected of being a female. She is tall and athletic, and when in male attire has all the appearance of a man. She is to be brought to trial not only for stealing the bottle of liquor, but also on the charge of wearing without authorization a costume not of her sex."

EXECUTION OF NATHANIEL HARTEN FOR THE MURDER OF MISS MORRIS.—The execution of Nathaniel Harten for the murder of Miss Melissa Morris, took place at Moundsville, Marshall Co., Va., on Thursday. As usual at all public executions, the crowd of people was immense. The Wheeling Intelligencer says:

"Harten ascended the scaffold slowly but firmly, accompanied by Rev. Mr. Richmond and other clergymen. When the condemned man beheld the scaffold, the little blood in his face disappeared; his eyes seemed to sink suddenly deeper into his head, and he seemed almost instantly to lose one-third of his flesh. This lasted but a short time, and becoming seated upon the scaffold, assumed the old, dull, morose appearance, which has characterized him ever since the first day of his arrest. Rev. Mr. Richmond then offered up a prayer in behalf of the condemned man in which he intimated that he (Harten) had experienced a change of heart, and hoped for Divine forgiveness. The rope was then adjusted about his neck, the cap drawn over his eyes, Sheriff Reed then pulled the trigger, and the next moment Harten was swinging in the air. He drew himself up twice or three times in violent struggles, but was soon motionless and lifeless. Among the many persons who pressed prominently upon the line of soldiers surrounding the scaffold, before the drop fell, was the father of the murdered girl, Morris, who was very much intoxicated, and so clamorously eager for the awful scene that it was with difficulty he was restrained by his neighbors."

A HEROINE.—One evening last week, the wife of a sea-captain, residing at Saybrook, was returning from a visit to a neighbor, when she was followed by two men. She overheard them say, "the captain is gone," and "there must be considerable money in the house." The lady upon reaching home, concluded to await the arrival of the parties, who, she had no doubt, intended to rob the house during the night. She had not long to wait, for at 11 o'clock a summons came to open the door. Instead of complying, she raised a chamber window and inquired who was there? No response came to this or further inquiries, and she told them to leave or she would shoot them.

They then tried to effect an entrance by climbing upon a shed, but one of them fell, and both returned to the front door, which they attempted to force. The lady taking a revolver in one hand and a candle in the other, stood in the door to meet the issue. In a few minutes the burglars had broken in, when she told them that if they moved a step towards coming into the house, they were dead men. They looked at her, consulted together a few moments, and then went away, declining to take the risk. After the peril was over she returned to her two children exhausted with the tension to which her nerves and courage had been subjected. Such a woman as that is worth having in the house, and we regret being unable to give her name.—Hartford Courant.

THE TURIN GAZETTE says that an officer of the Neapolitan court, named Bosco, has left for Sicily, declaring his intention of either killing Garibaldi (in a duel it is to be supposed) or being killed by him. The same journal says that the Neapolitan Government has set a price of 20,000 ducats (85,000f.) upon the head of Garibaldi.

IF IT WILL be any consolation to our Breckinridge and Lane friends, we can, after having thoroughly examined their chance in the election, assure them that they have a dead thing of it.—Louisville Journal.

Grand Republican Mass Meeting AT MILWAUKEE, ON WEDNESDAY, JULY 11, 1860.

THE REPUBLICAN ELECTORS of the First Congressional District, comprising the Counties of Racine, Kenosha, Walworth, Waukesha, and Milwaukee, are invited to meet in the City of Milwaukee, on Wednesday next, the 11th inst., to ratify the nominations of

ABRAHAM LINCOLN, of Illinois, for President of the United States;

HANNIBAL HAMLIN, of Maine, for Vice President; and JOHN F. POTTER, of Walworth County, for Representive in Congress.

All who believe with the Republican Party, in maintaining the right of FREE SPEECH, in promoting the interests of FREE LABOR, in encouraging and protecting HOME INDUSTRY and ENTERPRISE, and in opposing the extension and aggressions of Slavery and the SLAVE POWER, are cordially invited to attend the gathering.

Senator DOOLITTLE, Governor RANDALL, Lt. Governor NOBLE, and Attorney General HOWE will be present and address the meeting.

It is also hoped that the Hon. JOHN F. POTTER, CARL SCHURZ, and other distinguished Speakers from abroad will be in attendance.

The meeting will convene at Albany Hall at 2 o'clock P. M.

All Republican Clubs and Delegations, on their arrival in the city, are requested to report themselves at the Republican Headquarters in the Albany Block, Michigan Street, opposite the Newhall House.

The Lake Shore, Milwaukee and Mississippi, and Milwaukee, Watertown and Baraboo Valley Rail Roads, will carry passengers to and from the Convention, AT HALF-FARE.

Let the friends of FREE SPEECH, FREE SOIL, FREE LABOR and FREE PRINCIPLES rally in their might!

By order of the District Committee.

THE COMMITTEE.

First Ward Republican Club.

There will be a meeting of the Club at BIELFELD'S Saloon, on Monday evening, July 9th, at 7 1-2 o'clock.

All First Ward Republicans are invited to attend. (Signed.)

J. B. D. COGSWELL, Pres't.

The Returned Aeronaut.

We give in another column the graphic narative of Prof. STEINER. A careful perusal of it will hardly fail to convince the reader of his intrepid spirit. His position in the midst of a bank of clouds surcharged with electricity, and himself hanging to a globe of combustible gas, is treated of as coolly as though an every day occurrence. Mr. STEINER is deserving of a great deal of praise for the manner in which the ascension was conducted, and for his bravery throughout. And when we consider that the result has been anything but profitable to him, our praise should settle down into admiration of his Pluck. There is now a determination on the part of our citizens to send the gentleman up again, and we feel authorized to say, if he makes another ascension here it will be under altogether more favorable circumstances.

HEROISM OF TWO BOYS—A RAILROAD ACCIDENT AVERTED.—On Friday a passenger train coming East on the La Crosse Road broke a rail, some forty miles west of Milwaukee, one piece of which was thrown into the ditch leaving a bad break in the track. This was discovered by a couple of boys who were walking along on the track, and they at once resolved to stop any train that might be approaching. Accordingly they took their places, one on each side of the break, and after waiting awhile heard the train approaching, and when it came in sight, commenced waving their hats to attract the attention of the engineer, who, seeing them, stopped the train in time to avoid a fearful calamity. Those boys are heroes, and deserving of more honor and credit than though they had slain their hundreds on the battle field. We trust they will not be forgotten by the officers of the road.

THE WAR IN INDIA AND SEPOY REBELLION.—The Grand Moving Panorama of the War in India will be exhibited to-night, at the Academy of Music. This exhibition has been pronounced as very fine by those who have seen it. It opens with a beautiful view of Malta (where the "Sons" come from,) and includes pictures of the mutiny in Hindostan, Pompey's Pillar, Alexandria, Cleopatra's Needle, Madras, Lucknow, and thirty or more other views of Eastern cities and scenes.

The exhibition will be accompanied by oral explanations and good music, rendering it an entertainment at once the most chaste and instructive. Admission 25 and 15 cents.

ACCIDENT ON THE MILWAUKEE AND MINNESOTA R. R.—The 1:30 train, going West on the Milwaukee and Minnesota Railroad, on Saturday, was run into by a wood train a few rods this side of Beaver Dam, throwing the express and baggage cars off the track. EDWARD COLEMAN, a newsboy, who was in the baggage car, had both his legs broken. No one else was badly hurt. The wood train was on the main track, and in attempting to run to a switch before the arrival of the passenger train, came in collision with the latter before getting upon the side track.

APPOINTMENT OF CORONER.—We learn that WILLIAM R. BLOOMFIELD, of this city, has received from Gov. RANDALL the appointment of Coroner for the unexpired term made vacant by the removal of D. C. REED from the State. This is a good appointment. Mr. BLOOMFIELD is a young man of excellent ability, and will discharge the duties of the office faithfully.

PERSONAL—A LA CLODY.—FANNY FERN, who never wrote leaders for the London Times, New York Tribune, Evening Wisconsin, and other great journals, is still writing for the New York Ledger.

Narrative of Prof. Steiner's Eighty-Ninth Ascension, in the Balloon "Europa."

I left Milwaukee on the afternoon of July 4th, at 4:40, under favorable circumstances, with one hundred pounds ascending power. The wind in the west, three-quarters north. In ten minutes I had reached an elevation of 5,000 feet, and was moving east, three-quarters south, at the rate of forty-five miles an hour. In forty minutes I had reached an elevation of 12,000 feet and lost sight of Milwaukee. Previous to this I had a beautiful view, not only of Milwaukee, but of a large portion of Wisconsin. The Milwaukee river seemed like the silver string of a violin, in size, and to the south and west the farms and streams were visible for at least forty miles. When I had been out forty minutes I was overtaken by a thunder storm which was moving in an oblique direction to my course, and in an instant I was surrounded by clouds. It would be utterly impossible to describe the grandeur and beauty of this scene. Its suddenness was startling. The first intimation that I had of its vicinity was on turning my head and seeing a bank of clouds at least 500 feet high, moving towards me with an impressive steadiness. These clouds soon surrounded me on all sides—above, arching themselves into a mighty rotunda, and leaving a space through which the clear blue sky could be seen. Thus shut in, I seemed to be fixed in a tremendous shaft of vapor. The lightning darted up and down the sides, and the thunder peals were loud and continuous. I, however, felt no alarm, knowing that the balloon was a non-conducting substance. Once, while in this situation, I halloed as loud as I could, and the increase and reverberation of my voice in this dome almost stunned me.

Shortly after falling the rain began to fall; the sound on the balloon like shot. I at first imagined it was hailing, but when I felt the drenching drops I was no longer in doubt; in a few moments I was wet to the skin, and the balloon began to descend. This was caused by the water absorbed on her surface, and it became necessary for me to part with all my ballast in order to keep her up out of the lake. It was disagreeably cold, and as the water fell for thirty minutes, it can easily be imagined that my condition was not the most comfortable. However, I at last emerged from the storm. The earth came into sight again, and the warm sun expanding the balloon, caused me to make a rapid ascent.

The steamer Detroit was visible, ploughing her way across the waters, and the white sails of vessels in different directions looked pleasant.

At one time I felt sure that I could see the dust and smoke of Chicago, which rested like a dirty cloud on the distant horizon.

I now commenced to congratulate myself that the greatest danger was over; but I was doomed to disappointment. Scarcely was I allowed to get comfortable and obtain a view of the earth, before I was again shut up in another thunder storm. My hopes of reaching the shore were now fast diminishing.

It was about six o'clock. I did all that was in my power to lighten her, throwing over my grappling irons, and everything of weight—even to my overcoat. But all was of no avail—down she came; and by the time the storm was over, (7 o'clock and 5 minutes,) I struck the Lake ten miles from the mouth of the Kalamazoo River, and nine miles from land. There was not a vessel in sight, and it was impossible for me to reach the land if I parted with my Balloon. I knew that if I could get up 8,000 feet, I could strike an easterly current that would take me ashore, and as this was my only chance, I coolly set about putting it in execution. I immediately got upon the "concentrating hoop" above the basket, and as the weight of the latter prevented me from unsnapping the cords, I cut them with my pocket knife. The moment she was relieved of this weight, she rose, with me sitting on the hoop, holding the valve ropes in my hand. In three minutes I reached an elevation of 5,000 feet. The sun, which had set before, was now plainly visible. In fifteen minutes I was over the beach, and tightening my cords, I shot downwards—first perpendicularly, and then (influenced by an under current,) slightly in a westerly direction, striking in the water ten feet from the land, and without any difficulty waded ashore. In a very short time I was surrounded by a number of fishermen, who, having seen the "Europa" approaching, were now as much astonished at her disappearance as they were at my descent. They lent their aid willingly, though, and after helping me recover the balloon, conducted me to the light-house, where I was received by Mr. NICHOLS, the light-keeper, and was entertained. On the 6th I chartered a tug and left the mouth of the Kalamazoo for Grand Haven.

Twelve miles north of Kalamazoo my basket came ashore, but the contents were gone.

Arrived in Grand Haven at 3 o'clock, and taking the steamer, arrived in Milwaukee Friday night.

The entire length of the voyage was 103 miles, and its passage occupied two hours and thirty minutes.

CHEAP LITERATURE.—TUNIS & Co., on Wisconsin Street, have presented us with a couple of books entitled "Dime Novels," constituting No.'s one and two of BEADLE'S dime series of the choicest works of the most popular authors. Now this buying a novel for a dime is very suggestive of what our literature is coming to. Every-day reading matter is cheapened, and in a few years libraries will have lost all their charms, for everybody down to the stable boy will own one. You can buy a hundred and fifty pages of light reading for a dime at TUNIS'.—Don't it strike you as a monstrous stride toward that millennium when literature will be given away free gratis for nothing and no money asked!

NEW PUBLICATIONS.—We are indebted to STRICKLAND & Co., for a copy of the "Wigwam Edition" of the "Life, Speeches and Public Services of ABRAHAM LINCOLN;" together with a sketch of the life of HANNIBAL HAMLIN—published by RUDD & CARLETON, 130 Grand street, N. Y. Price 25 cents. This is a good campaign document.

STRICKLAND & Co. also send us "The Kellys and the O'Kellys," a very clever novel by the author of "Dr. Thorne"—published by RUDD & CARLETON. This novel has made quite a sensation in the literary circles of the Old World and of the Eastern States.

WAUPUN, DODGE CO., July 7.

EDITORS SENTINEL—Dear Sirs:—Can you give us anything reliable regarding an excursion trip to New York, to visit the "Great Eastern." We have heard talk of the same; and oblige

SEVERAL EXCURSIONISTS.

(No Excursion tickets have been issued as yet. But in all probability excursion trains will be run—perhaps in a few days—of which due notice will be given in the Sentinel.—EDS.)

FINE WEATHER.—Saturday gave us another delightful sample of Wisconsin summer weather. The bright sunshine was tempered by a fresh breeze from the lake, and everybody was out enjoying the pleasant day.

CARD OF THANKS.—The cordial thanks of the Committee of Arrangements are respectively tendered to the legion of friends contributing aid, in a variety of forms, towards the festival of the Free Church of the Atonement, by which (after deducting expenses) eighty dollars enhanced the funds in the funds in the Treasury, for the purpose of building and enlarging the edifice on the corner of Michigan and Jefferson streets.

Special thanks are due, and are hereby acknowledged, to the President of the Episcopal clergy of this city; to Messrs. R. DAVIES and RASTALL, Sr., for their interesting and amusing exhibitions in Ventriloquism and Dissolving Views, and to BLAIR & PERSONS for their liberal loan of crockery for the occasion.

The Wardens and Vestry at the same time gratefully acknowledge the receipt of £5 sterling, or $25, from the Rev. J. HATCHARD and family, in England, for similar purposes.

THE MEMBERS of the Welsh congregation worshipping on the corner of Van Buren and Michigan streets, inform us that we did great injustice to Mr. RICE (the policeman residing and keeping store opposite the church) in a recent notice of Sunday disturbance. We had no idea at the time that the item referred to Mr. RICE. We know him to be an officer who performs his duty entirely and well and do not know that there was any direliction on his part in the case referred to.

NOTICE.
DEFAULT HAVING BEEN MADE IN the payment of principal and interest due on a certain chattel mortgage, executed on the 12th day of August A. D. 1859, by James Seville and Charles S. Decker to Daniel W. Tomlinson, on all the following described personal property, to wit:
The buildings and improvements situated and being upon lots three (3), four (4), and five (5), in block fifty-seven (57) in the Fourth Ward of the City of Milwaukee, in the County of Milwaukee and State of Wisconsin, together with the leasehold interest of said Seville and Decker in said lots; said property being known as the "Reliance Works." Also the tools, flasks, patterns, machines and office furniture and other personal property employed of said Seville and Decker in and about said premises, or in any way connected with their business by them carried on at their "Reliance Works" aforesaid, which said mortgage was duly filed in the office of the Clerk of the City of Milwaukee, on the 29th day of August, A. D. 1859, and continued in force by an affidavit filed in the office of the Clerk of said City of Milwaukee, on the 3d day of August, A. D. 1859. On which said mortgage there is now claimed to be due the sum of fifteen thousand dollars, and interest on the same at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum from the 12th day of February, A. D. 1860.
Now, therefore, by virtue of said chattel mortgage and the power of sale therein contained, and the authority given me in the premises by said Daniel W. Tomlinson, and power of said mortgage, I have taken possession of said mortgaged property, and will sell the same at public auction on Friday, the 13th day of July, 1860, at 10 o'clock A. M., at said "Reliance Works," on lots 3, 4 and 5, in block 57, in the Fourth Ward of the City of Milwaukee.
Said mortgaged property comprises,

Grand Mass Meeting of the Republicans of the First Congressional District.

According to the wishes of a great many Republicans of the First Congressional District, the Committee of said District has agreed and hereby announces that a GRAND MASS MEETING will be held on Wednesday, the 11th day of July, at 2 o'clock P. M., in the City of Milwaukee, in order to re-nominate the HON. JOHN F. POTTER for Congress, and to attend to all other business that the meeting may think desirable.

The Republicans of the counties of Walworth, Waukesha, Kenosha, Racine and Milwaukee are hereby invited to attend this grand Republican rally, in order to express their sympathy and high esteem for our gallant representative, JOHN F. POTTER, and to show that the Republicans of the First District are alive and ready to do their share in the approaching Presidential Campaign.

Distinguished speakers will be present.

District Committee.

MADISON, June 23d, 1860.

A Sensible Conclusion.

The Madison Patriot having tried to frighten some of its readers into voting for DOUGLAS, as the only means to prevent the election of BRECKINRIDGE and LANE, a Democrat of twenty-five years standing makes answer through the columns of the State Journal, that the best possible way to avert the calamity which the Patriot threatens, is to vote for LINCOLN and HAMLIN. The Journal correspondent reasons in this wise:

I do honestly believe and admit without argument, as the Patriot says, that neither Douglas nor Breckinridge can be elected by the people; and that Lincoln alone has any show; yes, that he is almost certain of such an election.

I believe with the Patriot, that in case of no election by the people, the House of Representatives, as at present composed, cannot elect a President, and that the U. S. Senate, which in this case is the last resort, would then have to elect a President from the two highest candidates for Vice President. That these two highest candidates will be Hamlin and Lane, I admit also without argument, and every sane and unbiassed mind must, in my humble opinion, do the same; and who would, under existing circumstances, hesitate one moment to cast his vote for the Republican nominee, in order to defeat Breckinridge and Lane,—or in other words, to defeat Jo. Lane's election by the Senate?

There is no gainsaying the facts above set forth. If, by any possibility, the election for President and Vice President should go to Congress, the almost inevitable result will be, no choice in the House and the election of JOE LANE as Vice President by the Senate. After the 4th of March, in virtue of this election, JOE LANE would become President.

This is, undoubtedly, the game of the so-called "National Democrats." They know full well that there is no chance for BRECKINRIDGE before the people, but a very good one to carry more electoral votes for him than DOUGLAS can obtain; and in the contingency of no election by the popular vote, this would bring the names of BRECKINRIDGE and LANE before the House and Senate. As now constituted, there is no probability that the House could agree on a choice. Of course, it would then devolve upon the Senate to decide, and LANE would be their man. We believe, with the Journal correspondent, that a large number of Democrats will gladly cast their votes for the Republican nominees, to prevent the catastrophe of "JOE LANE's election by the Senate."

News Extraordinary.

We stop the press to announce the following:

"DOUGLAS AND THE PEOPLE."

"WATERTOWN, Wis., July 2, 1860.

"Immediately upon the reception of the news of Douglas' nomination, we fired a salute of 50 guns. We had a tremendous crowd, and speeches from Wm. Chappell, W. M. Dennis and P. V. Brown. The Republicans hurrah lustily for Breckinridge. This State is safe for Douglas by 10,000 majority."

The foregoing we clip from the Chicago Daily Times—the organ of Douglas in Illinois. We publish it as an item of news for the city of Watertown, and particularly the three distinguished Democrats of this city whose names appear above written, not one of whom ever thought of making a political speech in public.

The truth is, that when the nomination of Douglas was received here, the gun was fired seven or eight times—perhaps thirteen. The "tremendous crowd" consisted of a dozen men and twenty boys, all told.—The "speeches" were never made, as the "tremendous crowd" will testify. The 10,000 for Douglas will prove as much of a myth, as the "tremendous crowd," or the "speeches from Chappell, Dennis and Brown." In short, there were no "50 guns," no "tremendous crowd," no "speeches," just as there will be no "10,000 majority" for any body but Old Abe. If the above is a fair specimen of the Times' column of correspondence on "Douglas among the People," then God save the people from both Stephen and his supporters.—Watertown Republican, July 6th.

The above article from the Watertown Republican, exposes a characteristic trick of the Sham Democracy. The whole game of the DOUGLAS men, just now, is to make the public believe that the "Little Giant" enjoys extraordinary popularity in the Northwest, and is bound to sweep everything before him. This is intended, not so much for effect at home—where, indeed, the device is too weak to impose upon anybody—but to raise, if possible, the drooping spirits of the DOUGLAS tribe in other States. So far as Wisconsin is concerned, Mr. DOUGLAS has no possible chance of success. Mr. LINCOLN will receive the unbroken Republican vote of the State, and many Democratic ones besides.

The Prairies on Fire.

All over these Northwestern States the enthusiasm among the masses of the people over the nomination of Stephen A. Douglas, exceeds that of any candidate ever before the people for an elective office. In Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, and Minnesota, the people are moving in compact bodies, and marshalling for the contest. In localities which heretofore have hardly contained a democratic voter, Douglas men may be found by the score. The people are leaving the Black Republican ranks by the acre, and a political revolution is going on such as this country never witnessed. The prairies are actually on fire with enthusiasm for Douglas and Johnson, the light of which is spreading to all parts of the Union.—News of Saturday.

Those "prairie fires" are not yet visible to the naked eye and have not even given rise to an ordinary "alarm." They exist, in fact, only in the imaginations of DOUGLAS editors, and are as mythical as the other statements about the people leaving the Republican cause "by the acre," and a "revolution" going on such as "the country never witnessed." He must be credulous, indeed, who puts the slightest faith in such extravagant partizan fictions.

NEW DRESS.—The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser comes to us in a new and very neat dress from LYMAN's well-known Type Foundry at Buffalo. The Commercial well maintains its character as a reliable and enterprising newspaper.

ANOTHER VICTORY FOR FLORA TEMPLE.—The match at Philadelphia on the the 4th, between Patchen and Flora Temple, mile heats in harness, was won by the little bay mare in 2:22 1-2, 2:21 3-4, and 2:37 1-2.

The German Republican Press.

The Illinois Staats Zeitung, of Chicago, one of the best German papers published in the North-West, furnishes a list, which we copy elsewhere, of no less than sixty eight German newspapers that have already hoisted the LINCOLN and HAMLIN flag. Of the sixty-eight, nineteen are are dailies. Of the whole number, eight are published in the State of New York, one in New Jersey, twelve in Pennsylvania, one in Maryland, eight in Ohio, three in Michigan, six in Indiana, five in Missouri, four in Iowa, seven in Wisconsin, eight in Illinois, two in Minnesota, and one in Kansas.

This is one of the most encouraging indications of the campaign and must tell forcibly upon the popular vote in the States named. Republicanism is making rapid progress among the German population. The cry of Know-Nothingism, which the Democratic press kept up so persistently and with considerable effect all through the campaign of 1856, has ceased to have any terrors for intelligent Germans. They are entirely satisfied with the Republican doctrines and record on that point, and with the well-known sentiments of the Republican candidates.—Eight years ago the German Republican vote in this State counted only by units; four years ago by hundreds, and now by thousands.

Straddling the Fence.

There is an obscure print published in this State, claiming to be democratic, which has put up both the Douglas and Breckinridge tickets, when there are not three persons in the village where the paper is published, supporting the latter, and probably not twenty-five in the county. This sheet would appear far better if it would put up likewise the names of Lincoln, Bell and Houston.—News, of Saturday.

This "obscure print" occupies, at times, a very prominent place in the News' good opinions—but is out of favor, just now, because the editor advises his readers to "watch and wait," before they decide between the Scylla and Charybdis of Democracy. In the course of a week, or two, no doubt the Waukesha Democrat will make its election and run down either the DOUGLAS, or BRECKINRIDGE ticket.

FIREMEN'S TOURNAMENT AT BATTLE CREEK.—There was a grand trial of skill among Firemen, at Battle Creek, Michigan, on the 4th inst. The engines played thro' 200 feet of hose and a pipe, with the following comparative results:

No. 5 Detroit, 2d class, Roger's engine, 177 feet 10 1 2 inches.

Alert No. 1, Albion, 1st class, Tarbois' engine, 197 feet 9 inches.

Spouter No. 11, Detroit, 2d class, Smith's engine, 222 feet 2 inches.

Neptune No 1, Ypsilanti, 2d class, Button's engine, 184 feet 8 inches.

Burr Oak No. 1, Kalamazoo, 2d class, Jeffers' engine, 181 feet 11 inches.

Mayflower '76, Detroit, 2d class, Smith's engine, 276 feet 11 inches.

Hamilton No. 1, Dowagiac, 2d class, Cowing & Co., builders, Seneca Falls, 266 feet 9 inches.

Wolverine No. 3, Detroit 2d class, Smith's engine, 217 feet 6 inches.

Deluge No. 1, Marshall, 2d class, Button's engine, 209 feet 3 inches.

No. 3, Jackson, 1st class, Jeffers' engine, 242 feet 2 inches.

Neptune No. 6, Detroit, 1st class, Button's engine, 252 feet 2 inches.

Defiance No. 2, Niles, Wright engine, 232 feet 4 inches.

Continental No. 3, Detroit, 1st class, Jeffers' engine, 228 feet.

Alert No. 1, Hudson, 2d class, Smith's engine, 202 feet 6 inches.

There was a fresh wind blowing during the trial, which sometimes hindered and sometimes helped the streams. The throwing was extraordinary.

HOW THE DEMOCRATIC PAPERS STAND.—The New York Herald publishes a long list of Democratic papers to show what candidates they support. The following is its recapitulation:

	Breckinridge.	Douglas.
Northern States	26	83
Southern States	59	18
Total	85	101

THE HIDE-AND-GO-SEEK PARTY.—The Cincinnati Commercial says that the Enquirer, the DOUGLAS organ in that city, has never published the Slave Code resolution adopted by the Convention that nominated DOUGLAS, and which that gentleman declares is "in perfect harmony" with his peculiar principles of Popular Sovereignty.

The Canvass in the South.

From the New York Tribune, July 2.

In announcing, one week ago, the nomination of Douglas and Fitzpatrick at Baltimore, we expressed our hope and belief that they would outrun Breckinridge and Lane in the popular vote of the Slave States.—Our anxiety to see the Yanceys and Curreys of that section well flogged by any party or faction "that keeps step to the music of the Union" in any and every contingency, may have warped our judgment in the premises; but the declension of Gov. Fitzpatrick was a very serious incident which we did not then foresee; and the subsequent developments of Southern opinion have been different from what we anticipated. In short, the aspects of the Southern canvass are quite other than we then anticipated.

We exchange with most of the leading Democratic journals of the slave States; and among them all we recognize just two of established character and decided force that support Douglas and Johnson. These are the Mobile Register and the St. Louis Republican. The latter, though till recently Whig, is able and influential, and its support gives Mr. Douglas a chance for the vote of Missouri. The former is also ably edited, but has never exerted a controlling influence in Alabama, having been generally in the minority of his own party. Its editor, Mr. Forsyth (son of the Hon. John Forsyth, who was Senator from Georgia, Minister to Spain, and finally Secretary of State,) has since his recall from the Mexican Embassy, been an ardent Douglas man on personal grounds, and the Democracy of Alabama sympathize neither with his preference, nor his reasons. We should judge from the indications that reach us that Alabama would give more popular votes for the Breckinridge ticket than for all the others.

Perhaps we should add Mr. Soule's organ, the True Delta, at New Orleans, to the list of prominent Democratic journals in the South that support Mr. Douglas; and those who will may count the Louisville Democrat in that category. If there be any more, we do not know them. In South Carolina, there is no journal that even tolerates the idea of supporting Douglas in any contingency; in Mississippi, we believe the state of the case to be the same; in Kentucky, we hear of no Douglas journal, but the Democrat aforesaid; in Tennessee, none has yet been heard from, while we know that the Union, (Nashville,) Avalanche, (Memphis,) and other leading journals are out for Breckinridge. In Virginia, we hear of but one paper coming out for Douglas, but all we see are the other way; and they include the mouth pieces of seven-eighths of the Democracy of that State, beginning with the Enquirer and the Examiner of Richmond, and including the Southern Argus, Norfolk, the Argus, Wheeling, the Sentinel, Alexandria, &c., &c.

We believe there are at least seventy five Democratic journals in the Old Dominion, of which at least seventy-one are for Breckinridge. We had supposed that there would be at least a sufficient vote for Douglas in that State to give its electors to Bell and Everett, but there will not; Breckinridge will carry it. We cannot speak so confidently for North Carolina; but the Press, Raleigh, Journal, Wilmington, and Banner, Salisbury, are out for Breckinridge, and none, within our knowledge, for Douglas. Even in Maryland, where the Douglas men divided the delegation, they do not seem to be sustained by any considerable portion of the Democratic press; while in Delaware, the Republican, Wilmington, goes decidedly for Breckinridge, while it is not only the most influential organ of Democracy in the State, but located just where Douglas should be strong, if in any part of it. Down at the lower end, which sympathizes with the Bay counties of Maryland, he stands no chance.

From Florida, Arkansas and Texas, we have no indications as yet; but Arkansas is the only one of them in which Douglasism has ever had an existence, and here it has been decidedly in the minority. Sam Houston is likely to carry Texas; if not, Breckinridge will.

NONE are so seldom found alone, and are so soon tired of their own company, as those coxcombs who are on the best terms with themselves.

THERE are some who write, talk, and think so much about vice and virtue, that they have no time to practice either one or the other.

FORTUNE has been considered the guardian divinity of fools; and she is certainly very kind in helping those who cannot help themselves.

How Oconomowoc Looks—Politics in the "Rural Districts."

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

OCONOMOWOC, July 6, 1860.

MESSRS EDITORS:—Up in the North-west corner of Waukesha county, is a village bearing the above euphoneous name. It has not received at the hands of the press of the State, the consideration which its merits.—You come from Milwaukee on the Milwaukee, Watertown & Baraboo Valley Railroad through endless fields of waving grain, until the country becomes interspersed with little lakes, which sparkle along the route, and refresh the eye of the traveller, weary with so much promise of a golden harvest. Between two of the fairest of these, this place is situated, a perfect Madison in embryo.—Away in the distance the water ripples in the sun, and its banks are dotted with thrifty looking farm houses, which peep out from behind the trees, whose deep foliage almost kisses the waves. Then out in the largest of the lakes are two of the cosiest little Islands imaginable, looking like like emeralds set in silver, all covered over with green.—La Belle is the name of the lake, and from the Hotel of the same name all this glorious prospect can be seen, one which I believe to be second to none in the State for beauty.

Where is the use of travelling off hundreds and thousands of miles to fashionable watering places, when so many facilities for healthy enjoyment are offered so near home? The crystal waters of the lakes abound in fish, and invite the bather to their cool depths; while there are crafts of all kinds to bear him over their surface. I think that a great many towns obtain their reputation above others, for beauty, by a studied system of puffing on the part of the inhabitants, and others interested. This place has received no such aids, and needs none. To see it, is to be charmed with it at once. In a business point of view, it appears to be as thriving as could be asked for in these times. It is slowly but steadily growing, as becomes a town which has a future in store for it, and whose past has not been blighted by the speculative fevers of the West.

There are a few Democrats here yet, but their number is becoming thinner every day. I was talking with one the other day, on political topics. He is one of those sensible men who say little and think much; has voted the Democratic ticket ever since he was old enough to vote; has never held an office, and don't want one. Said he, "I cast my vote for BUCHANAN in 1856, and have repented in dust and ashes ever since; I have been favorable to DOUGLAS heretofore, but since his recent attempt to obtain a harmonious nomination at Baltimore, by sending in that resolution to please the Southern wing of the party, I have made up my mind that there is very little to choose between him and BUCHANAN on the score of honesty, so I think I shall try Old Abe." There is a great deal more of that kind of talk used among the Democrats than most of us Republicans are aware of. There have been a great many conscientious men among them, but depend upon it, there will be few left after next November—the chaff will be winnowed from the wheat then.

These men have had the scales taken from their eyes by the recent scenes in their conventions. They are very loth to acknowledge that they have been steadily sustaining such a mass of corruption as has been laid bare at Washington, and although they may not generally and openly renounce the party before the Republican congregation, the silent ballots will tell how fully they have abjured the rotten concern. They are going to try Old Abe. The more they try him, the better they will like him and his principles. They will see what a transparent sham this vaunted popular sovereignty is, even if we could confide in the sincerity of the men who originated it. How it "keeps the promise to the ear, but breaks it to the hope." They will ask themselves which is the most rational doctrine in this free government of ours; whether our Constitution made Slavery universal or sectional?

Whether that was a mere idle string of words in the preamble of the instrument, which declares, among other things, that it was made "to secure the blessings of liberty?" If it means anything, how can the people of a Territory, or Congress, or any human power, establish or maintain the institution in our common domain, without violating the letter and spirit of the Constitution? Where, then, is Popular Sovereignty? Strong in our convictions that our cause is the cause of Liberty and Humanity, our only regret is that the Pro-Slavery Douglas men, the Slave Code Oligarchy, and the Conservative Union Democratic Stool Pigeons, did not see fit to charge in a single column, and let us end them at once and forever.

M. O. H.

The Presidential Election.

The Democrats do not open the campaign with much vigor. The Douglas meeting of Monday night, though not a dead failure, showed a dismal falling-off from the spirit and life which marked Democratic gatherings in the better days of the party. It was not very large, and not at all enthusiastic, in spite of the presence of Mr. Douglas himself. The speakers were not men of mark. None of the local magnates of the party took any conspicuous part in the proceedings:—there was nothing bold, open and resolute in the action or the temper of the meeting; and it melted away, at an early hour, as quietly and soberly as an evening gathering for religious service. It was altogether too solemn and subdued to be effective. Nothing but the indifference of blank despair, could make a mass meeting of the Democracy so thoroughly respectable.

The truth is, the Democrats do not hope for success, and few of them care for it. The party has become so thoroughly demoralized, all the great principles which formerly gave it power and popularity have so completely disappeared, that its leading members have no faith in its future, and no heart for its expiring struggles. Reflecting men of all parties feel that the time has come for a change. The country needs it. The Democratic party has been in power so long, that it has degenerated into a faction. It has ceased to consult or respect the people, but aims only to plunder and use them. Corruption, intrigue, and most open prostitution of public power and patronage to party and personal ends, have become the law of its action. Mr. Buchanan has given the finishing touches to degredation to his party, and has made respectable persons ashamed to confess that they ever belonged to it.—N. Y. Times, 3d.

BLONDIN AT THE BRIDGE.—The number of people at the Bridge yesterday was greater, probably, than any which has assembled to witness any previous "walk" of M. Blondin. The train which left here at 2:30 P. M. yesterday, consisted, of twelve passenger cars, all of which were filled. At the Falls three more coaches were added, making a train of some fifteen coaches, containing some 750 persons. The different enclosures on either side of the river were exceedingly well patronized, the neighboring house tops and windows were filled, and the Bridge itself presented a gay appearance—there being upon it the whole number allowed, one thousand, and many late comers were refused admittance.

Between four and five o'clock, M. Blondin, in his usual showy costume, made his appearance on the rope, and started on his trip. Midway between the two shores, a "slack rope" was suspended from the main cable, hanging down some twenty feet, and upon reaching this, Blondin abandoned his pole, and letting himself down into the swing which the slack rope formed, executed a series of thrilling and fearful feats, such as hanging by his heels, turning summersaults, &c.

Having reached the Canada shore, and rested for a time, he re-appeared upon the rope, this time in the character of "Jocko," the ape, and propelling a wheelbarrow before him. He reached this side in safety, of course, and was warmly greeted on his arrival by spectators. This was one of M. Blondin's most successful exhibitions and seemed to afford great satisfaction.—Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, July 5.

GRAND CHANCE TO SECURE A HOME upon such terms that any one who has any industry can do it. Mr. Glidden, who owns one-half of Lockwood & Glidden's Addition, has made me his agent, to sell his lots in said Addition, at unusually low prices, to any one who will improve them, and upon such terms that any one can meet the payments. It is unnecessary to go into argument to convince one who has any judgment that this property, which is situated in the First Ward, must, and will be the most desirable residence property in the city of Milwaukee.—It is in full view of the Lake and on high ground which over-looks the city, and a more healthy situation cannot be found. Its location for business men is very desirable, the Horse Railroad passing through it every fifteen or twenty minutes. Much more could be said about this valuable property, but we will only say, any persons who have any desire to purchase any of said Lots, if they will call at my office they can see a map, and I will go with them and show them the Lots, and they can judge for themselves. The terms on which said Lots will be sold are as follows: Ten per cent. in twelve months: 15 per cent. in two years: and 25 per cent. every year thereafter until the amount is paid, with inter. st at the rate of 7 per cent per annum, interest not to commence until six months after the date of purchase. Here is a chance never before offered, and there is every reason to believe that this property will advance 100 per cent. in less than twelve months. The great advantage of the Horse Rail road must, and will make it very desirable. The Lots are free from all encumbrances whatever. Certificate of title will be furnished to any one who may purchase.

Sewing Machines.

FINKLE & LYON'S
FIRST PREMIUM
Celebrated Family and Manufacturers
SEWING MACHINES.

THESE MACHINES ARE FIRSTCLASS and make the well known SHUTTLE, or LOCK STITCH, which for economy, durability and beauty far surpasses all other kind of STITCH.
The proprietors warrant their machines to do more work and give better satisfaction to the purchaser, than any other Sewing Machine in the market, and to sew from the finest gauze to the heaviest cloth or hard leather, with the machine running at highest speed, without stopping or changing tension, making the seam elastic, alike on both sides, and dropping no stitches. It is safe to conclude that the machine that will do this BEST is the best for family use.

Family Machines from $50 to 125.

All of these machines, Family, Manufacturers and larger, are built upon the same principle, and free from all WIRE SPRINGS, LEATHER, or RUBBER PADS which cause so much annoyance in other machines. For manufacturing purposes this machine has no rival; for Tailors, Harness Makers, and for any one who wishes a reliable machine, and one that is always ready for any kind of work, and all kinds of Sewing with Cotton, Linen and Silk WE DEFY THE WORLD.

Manufacturing Machines from $85 to 125.

All machines warranted to give better satisfaction than any other Sewing Machines in market, or money refunded.
Constantly on hand—all kinds of Sewing Machine findings.

THE CELEBRATED COPPER TOE!

WADSWORTH & WELLS,
WHOLESALE DEALERS IN
Boots and Shoes,
60 LAKE STREET, CHICAGO. 60

WE OWN THE EXCLUSIVE RIGHT for the sale of MITCHELL'S PATENT METALLIC TIPPED BOOTS AND SHOES, for and within the States of Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota, and hereby give notice that all parties dealing in these goods within the above States, without having first arranged with us, and by our consent, are and will be direct infringers upon our EXCLUSIVE rights, and that as soon as we are advised of any infringement, shall demand proper and immediate redress.
We have made extensive arrangements with the most celebrated manufacturers, whereby we can fully supply the increasing demand with the best qualities of these Tipped Boots and Shoes from our store in Chicago, each pair of which will be stamped and labeled with our name.
We shall recognize no Tipped goods within either the above States, but such are thus stamped and supplied by us.
We will warrant in all instances one pair of child's copper-tipped shoes to out wear two and oftentimes three or four pairs of equal quality without tips, as can be shown by very many testimonials, while the expense is but a trifle more, making an actual average saving to the consumer of near two hundred ℔ cent.
Merchants and dealers in Boots and Shoes within the above States, can also find these Metallic Tipped Boots and Shoes, supplied and properly stamped by Wadsworth & Wells, for sale by ATKINS, STEELE & WHITE, and BRADLEY & METCALF, Milwaukee.

of the finest purified flint, which show the clearest and most correct copies. As these glasses permit every ray of light to pass completely through them they will not only enable the party using them, to do the finest eye-work without injury, but will preserve and even strengthen the sight, which very often, by other glasses is ruined.
My SPECTACLES are celebrated for the superior and high optic nature of the glasses, as well as NEATNESS and ELEGANCE of finish, for which they received at the World's Fairs, both Paris and London, the first premiums, (viz: Gold Medals), being the best specimens on exhibition. Many years experience and a thorough knowledge of optics, enable me to select such glasses for those requiring the same, as will ensure entire satisfaction.

MOTHERS! MOTHERS!

DON'T FAIL TO PROCURE MRS Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. It has no equal on earth. It greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing inflamation—will allay all pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful Female Physicians in New England, and has been used with never failing success in millions of cases.

We believe it is the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhœa in children, whether it arises from teething or any other cause.

If life and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, it is worth its weight in gold.

Millions of bottles are sold every year in the United States. It is an old and well tried remedy.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

☞ None genuine unless the fac simile of CURTIS & PARKER, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

THE RAIN CONCERT.

Millions of tiny drops
Are falling all around;
They're dancing on the house-tops,
They're hiding in the ground.

They are fairy-like musicians,
With anything for keys,
Beating tune upon the windows,
Keeping time upon the trees.

A light and airy treble
They play upon the stream,
And the melody enchants us
Like the music of a dream.

A deeper bass is sounding
When they're dropping into caves;
With a tenor from the zephyrs,
And an alto from the waves.

O, 'tis a stream of music,
And Robin "don't intrude,"
If, when the rain is weary,
He drops an interlude.

It seems as if the warbling
Of the birds in all the bowers,
Had been gathered into rain drops
And was coming down in showers.

From Colborn's New Monthly Magazine.

THE FATAL CHAIN.

FROM THE SWEDISH OF UNCLE ADAM.

Before the table stood an arm chair, which formerly had been gilded, but now the white grounding was visible in many places; the red velvet with which it was covered was not faded; indeed upon the whole, the colors were better preserved in this room than in the others. I was surprised at it, but the count, who regarded everything in his own peculiar way, merely remarked that the chamber lay on the northern side of the house.

"You see, Herr Pastor, where the full glare of the sun cannot penetrate, any thing old is better preserved. It is a well known fact, that what is ancient is best preserved in darkness; this holds good as well in the material as in the moral world, for light is only required for that which is growing. Objects that decay are more easily decayed in light than in twilight. Hence," he added with a satirical curl of his lip, "darkness is so necessary for the preservation of what is old."

These apartments having been brought into some sort of order, the Count established himself in them; from the time he had taken possession of his paternal property, his temper appeared to have become more equable. The castle harmonized with his restless soul, which cared not for the present, but loved rather to live amidst the memory of the past, which was crowded with familiar acquaintances; or endeavor to seek a dark and mysterious intercourse with another, and to us, unknown world.

He was a visionary, but a noble visionary, with a deep sense of everything that is good and grand. I frequently visited him, and found him often engaged in reading, but he always hid his book when I entered. Once, however, I happened to catch a glimpse of it; it was Junk Stilling's works.

"I see, Count," said I, "you are reading about ghosts and apparitions. You surely do not believe in them?"

"Why should I not? Is there anything absurd in that belief, or do you suppose that man is the only being in the creation intellectually endowed? That he stands next to God? Do you not believe in the possibility that the human soul, when freed from its vile earthly garment, can receive a more perfect, an ethereal body, suited to its new state? I believe in it, and fined comfort in the thought. What were man if he did not, even here below, penetrate, however dimly, into a future existence, and acquire a slight knowledge of its mysteries? What were we, did we not all believe in this, to a greater or less extent? I maintain that there does not exist a man who has not some belief in spirits, even though he may ridicule the idea to others. When Death steals away the best beloved of a man's heart, seizes her in his bony arms, and draws her down into the gloom of the grave—when the hand of Providence lies heavily upon him—rest assured, my friend, that man will believe in a spiritual world."

"Assuredly; and he ought to do so. No one should dare to doubt the future existence of the soul."

"I speak of the atmosphere as being peopled with spirits; to that belief the soul of man clings when sorrowing for the dead."

"Sorrow often leads to wild ideas," I remarked.

"Sorrow!" repeated the Count. "You are partly right; sorrow constitutes the night in the fate of mankind. When we are prosperous we heed not the wheel of fate, the earthly element asserts right over us, and cheats us into the belief that we are happy. True happiness and sorrow are more in unison than we are apt to fancy. If we sit on a peaceful evening, with a beloved wife and her children, and thank the Lord for the blessings we enjoy, it is their presence which constitutes our happiness? or, if we fall upon our knees by the side of their inanimate corpses, though we are bowed down with grief for their loss at first, after a time we cease to feel that we are alone. There is a something invisible, inaudible, and yet intelligible to our inmost soul that tells us restoration succeeds to dissolution, and life succeeds to death; and this something I call a mysterious [illegible]int recourse with the spirit-world."

"But, Count, I suggested, 'reason points out to us——.'"

"Reason!" repeated he, impetuously interrupting me, "Speak not of cold reason! What is that power which some possess of divining every feeling, every thought of those near them? What is feeling in comparison with foreboding—judgment in comparison with faith? He who acknowledges the existence of a higher world—who sincerely and earnestly believes in a connection between his feelings and their author—God—is a person of elevated mind; the man, on the contrary, who in his pride of intellect detracts from the Holy One, and divides the indivisible, is groveling and limited in his ideas. I never could endure that overwise reason, which would force itself into everything, without doing so in reality. Do not say, therefore, Herr Pastor, what reason points out to us. I contend that reason knows nothing about that matter."

I found it was not worth while to dispute with the Count, for as he would not admit the right of reason, I had nothing to advance against his vague and undefinable notions.

"It is a comfort," said the Count, one day "to believe in spiritual visits. I live alone here; my servants inhabit the second story, and you may possibly fancy that my time often hangs heavily on my hands. Far from it; when my candles begin to burn dimly in the evening, and the thick foliage is rustling gently—when the old furniture creaks, and a distant sound is heard, which may either be taken for the ringing of bells or the chanting of low murmuring voices, then my true life begins. I saunter up and down the room, and at times stand still and listen.—Ah! then, often do I feel as if a flood of joy were rushing to my wounded heart—there is a flitting sound in the adjoining chamber—"Julia, Julia! thou hast not forgotten me!" I exclaim; and, calm and happy, I retire to rest and fall asleep dreaming of her."

The Count sank into deep thought, but he soon raised his dark eyes again, and gazing into my face, he said:

"You are my friend, are you not, even though you do not approve of my chimeras, as you reasonable people call them? I speak of my Julia; you do not know her, although she has for years belonged to your parish.—She it was who, on the evening that I saw you for the first time, was conveyed to her last resting-place—she, my wife. I will tell you about my Julia, and you must not endeavor to dissuade me, by reasoning, from a belief which has become so necessary to me."

The Count seated himself in a large arm-chair, and began his narrative as follows:

"The house of Baron Lindesparre, in Stockholm, was, at the period from which my story dates, the rendezvous of all the beauty and talent of the capital. His soirees were noticed for the distinguished tone which pervaded them, for their unconstrained mirth, and their elegance without ostentation. His splendid apartments were tastefully arranged, without a single article being placed so as to appear more prominent than the rest; where all was luxury the profusion was not observable. It was only when one analyzed the magnificence of the house that one found it was magnificent.

"The Baron had been many years a widower; his wife, a Spaniard by birth, I never saw, but she had left a daughter, beautiful and gentle, a being formed partly of the glowing roses of the South, and partly of the snow of the North. She was the fairy of the place, and hundreds vied for a smile from her lips. This was Julia. She became my wife. We had been married half a year, and had a separate residence, but on every soiree, Julia went to her father's to do the honors of the house. On one of the evenings the company was more numerous than usual, and I observed a gentleman among the crowd whom I did not know, and who kept his eyes continually fixed upon my wife. He was tall and thin, with a countenance pale and attenuated; the features were almost stiff and inanimate, and the flashing eyes alone, which he fixed with a sort of scornful look upon my Julia, betrayed life. He was dressed in black, but a small star of brilliants sparkled from his button-hole, showing that he was in the service of some government. The man appeared to be about fifty years of age, and a few grey hairs peeped out here and there among his otherwise black locks. I know not why I took such a strong interest in him; I fancied him disagreeable, and yet I was attracted to him. He was a sort of spell, such as certain snakes are said to exercise over their victims.

"My father-in-law came towards me.

"Who is that gentleman dressed in black?" I asked.

"Ah!" answered the old man, "I had almost forgotten to introduce you; he is a Spaniard, a countryman of my beloved wife. Come!"

I followed him and soon stood before the strange-looking guest.

"Don Caldero," began my father-in-law, "allow me to have the honor of introducing to you my son-in-law, Count Lejonsward—Don Caldero, attached to the Spanish embassy."

The stranger in the black dress said a few polite words to my father-in-law, who then moved on.

"As far as I can judge from observation, you are the happiest husband in all cold Sweden. I am glad to have made your acquaintance," said the Spaniard; "I have long remarked you, and intended to have inquired your name. You, like myself, appear to pay attention, not only to the outward but also to the inward properties of mankind. I rejoice to have met a kindred spirit."

NEW ARRANGEMENTS.

HUNN & CROSBY,

No. 151 East Water St., Milwaukee.
Two doors north of Uncle Ben's Hat Store.

TAKE THIS OCCASION TO ANNOUNCE to their friends, and the public at large, that they have removed from their old quarters to their present location, for the purpose of obtaining more ample accommodations for their business, and to keep pace with the requirements of their trade. We have just made heavy additions to our stock, which makes ours the best assorted Family grocery in town, and we intend to be in future, as we always have been in the past, the first in the market with every novelty of the season. We are receiving goods every week from the East; thereby always keeping our stock fresh and full. Everything pertaining to the trade can be found at our establishment, and we are prepared to sell at wholesale as well as retail, on as favorable terms as any concern in town. Teas, Sugars, Coffees, Dried Fruits, Hermetically Sealed Fruits, and every other article usually found in first-class family groceries, are sold by us, and always warranted as represented. We will sell you a better Tea for fifty cents, than you can buy anywhere else in town for seventy-five, and as good a one for forty, as our windy cotemporaries, who make such a blow on TEAS, will or can sell for fifty. We mean what we say, and stand ready to verify it every hour in the day, and every day in the week. We make it a point never to be undersold, and want it distinctly understood that we do our business upon that principle.

Country merchants can always sort up their stock with us, to a good advantage. We will sell you goods by the package as low as any of the wholesale dealers down town.

Butter and Eggs are received by us daily, from our agents in the country.

☞ TERMS CASH.

We cordially invite our friends and customers, and the public generally, to call and see us in our new institution, and make an examination of our goods and prices. Particular attention paid to orders.

St. Nicholas Hotel,

BROADWAY.
NEW YORK.

WHEN COMPLETED, SIX YEARS ago, the St. Nicholas was universally pronounced the most magnificent, convenient and thoroughly organized establishment of the kind on this continent. What it was then, it remains today—without a rival in sumptuousness, and in the general elements of comfort and enjoyment. The Hotel has accommodations for 1,000 guests, including 100 complete suites of apartments for families. Six hundred persons can be comfortably seated at the tables of its three public dining rooms, and nothing that modern art has devised for the convenience and social gratification of the traveling public has been omitted in its plan, or is neglected in its practical details. The early reputation of the house at home and abroad derived from its magnitude, its superb appointments, and its homelike comforts, and luxuries, has been enhanced every year by the unwearied exertions of the proprietors.

SOYER'S SULTANA'S SAUCE.

For Hot and Cold Dishes of all Kinds.

THIS MOST DELICIOUS and appetising Sauce, invented by the renowned "SOYER," for the London Reform Club, is, since his decease, manufactured by the well known house of CROSSE & BLACKWELL, London, from the original recipe. It is the favorite sauce in England and on the Continent, with a high and growing reputation among American Epicures, and is much approved of as a stimulant to the appetite and aid in digestion.

Opinions of the London Press.

"We recommend our correspondent to try Mons. Soyer's new Sauce, entitled the 'Sultana's Sauce.' It is made after the Turkish recipe; its flavor is excellent, and it affords considerable aid in cases of SLOW AND WEAK DIGESTION."—The Lancet.

"Savory, Piquant and Spicy, worthy the genius of Soyer."—Observer.

"A most valuable adjunct to Fish, Flesh and Fowl, and should have a place on every table."—Atlas.

Richardson's Irish Linens, Damaks,

DIAPERS, &C.—CONSUMERS OF RICHARDSON'S LINENS, and those desirous of obtaining the GENUINE GOODS, should see that the articles they purchase are sealed with the full name of the firm, J. N. RICHARDSON, SONS & OWDEN, as a guarantee of the soundness and durability of the Goods.

This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are prepared, season after season and sealed with the name of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury thus indicted alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable while purchasers can be imposed on with Goods of a worthless character.

Medical.

DR. MOTT'S CHALYBEATE RESTORATIVE PILLS OF IRON.

AN APERIENT AND STOMACHIC preparation of IRON purified of Oxygen and Carbon by combustion in Hydrogen. Sanctioned by the highest Medical authorities, both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case. Innocuous in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emaciation, Dyspepsia, Constipation, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Incipient Consumption, Scrofulous Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Mismenstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headaches, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to have become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly re-appeared in the busy world, as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land. Some very signal instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptic aversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

In Nervous Affections of all kinds and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness, without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific action, by dispersing the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendant Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhoea, even when advanced to Dysentery, confirmed, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debilitating cough, and remittent hectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well-known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by Druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, etc., should be addressed to

THE ONLY ARTICLE

Unrivalled in Market,

WITH IMMENSE
HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND.

THE REASON WHY, IS THAT BY Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy, and beautiful and if used by the young two or three times a week, it will never fall or become gray; then readers, read the following and judge for yourselves:

New York, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.:

GENTLEMEN: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudice which, in common with a great many persons, I had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad that I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was, but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being ocular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking.

I am, Yours Respectfully,
HENRY JENKINS.
Cor. Columbus and Carroll sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country.—My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, &c., S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

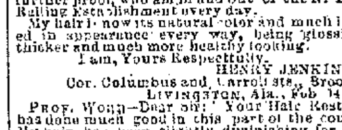

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering, was in fact bald. I have used but two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it.

Yours, respectfully, D. R. THOMAS, M. D.
No. 464 Vine street

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

O. J. WOOD & CO., Proprietors, 312 Broadway, New York, (in the great N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment,) and 114 Market St., St. Louis, Mo.

Medical.

MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures

EVERY KIND OF HUMOR FROM
THE WORST SCROFULA DOWN TO A COMMON PIMPLE.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will cure the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.

Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

ROXBURY, Mass.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother.

NURSING SORE MOUTH

is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

In the more advanced stages of

CANKER

it extends to the stomach, causing

DYSPEPSIA

which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.

Your stomach is

RAW AND INFLAMED,

your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follows a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to

CURE;

Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip-joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also that most excruciating of diseases the

PILES.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb, "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the

MEDICAL DISCOVERY

you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly,

DONALD KENNEDY.

DR. CHURCHILL'S REMEDY.

WINCHESTER'S GENUINE PREPARATION OF THE

HYPOPHOSPHITES

OF LIME AND OF SODA,
(Made from the Formula of Dr. J. F. Churchill,)
FOR THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF CONSUMPTION!

THE SUCCESS OF THIS NEW REMEDY, (discovered by Dr. Churchill, of Paris,) in obtaining the most UNBOUNDED POPULARITY throughout Europe and the United States. It is a purely SCIENTIFIC PREPARATION, and acts with INVARIABLE EFFICACY in all stages of Pulmonary and Nervous Diseases.

This Remedy has not only a curative effect, but will, if used wherever there exists a suspicion of the disease, PREVENT ITS DEVELOPMENT, and thus act, as a preservative with regard to Consumption, just as vaccination does with regard to small pox.

What the Medical Profession Say.

"In no instance have I found the Remedy to fail." —Dr. Churchill.

"I have used your preparation of the Hypophosphites with the most happy effect."—C. Fisher, M. D., Lyndville, Ill.

"I have been astonished in witnessing the good effects of the Hypophosphites. The statements in your pamphlet are not at all exaggerated. My patient was just entering the last stage of tubercular consumption."—S. Moses, M. D., Hoosic Falls, N. Y.

"They exert an important remedial influence over the tubercular disease by improving the nervous strength and invigorating the nutritive functions."—Dr. W. E. Bust, Morristown, N. J.

"I have derived more satisfaction from the use of your Hypophosphites than from all other forms of medication combined."—Dr. Geo. W. Harris, Columbus, O.

"If, on the earliest appearance of the symptoms, the patient takes daily about ten grains of the Hypophosphites, he will speedily find himself in the enjoyment of such health as he, perhaps, had never known in his life before."

"Winchester's Hypophosphites are unexceptional in their preparation."—Am. Druggists' Circular.

"Mr. Winchester is worthy of all confidence, and devotes himself enthusiastically to these preparations in all their variety of combination.

Prepared strictly by Dr. Churchill's method."—D. Meredith Reese, M. D., New York.

"LOWELL, O., July 5, 1859.—I have had several cases given up by attending physicians who are now except from all the symptoms of pulmonary disease.—I have used the Remedy in my own case, with decided success. It was regarded as hopeless by physicians and friends, and even by myself, under the 'old' treatment. I am now able to ride, in attending the sick, as many miles, perhaps, in a day, as any other physician in the country."—W. F. Clark, M. D.

"The Hypophosphites are most appropriate Remedies in large class of affections resulting from loss of nervous force."—Boston Medical and Surgical Journal.

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption

IS NOW READY.

The Hypophosphites may be used with incurable success in Chronic Bronchitis, Asthma, Dyspepsia and in all "Nervous" Disorders.

Make no Delay!

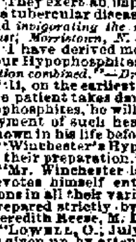

Consumptives, in any stage of the disease, should resort immediately to the use of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. "Winchester's Genuine Preparation" (in simple syrup), in extra large bottles, is "chemically pure;" is the combination proposed by Dr. Churchill "for general use"; and is prepared according to his original formula.

For sale, Wholesale and Retail, by HENRY FESS, Jr., Milwaukee, who is authorized to supply THE TRADE at New York prices.

Scrofula, or King's Evil,

IS A CONSTITUTIONAL disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this blood be omes vitiated, weak and poor. Being in the circulation, it pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease upon any part of it. No organ is free from its attacks, nor is there any one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, above all, by the venereal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children."

Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul corruption, which engenders in the blood, depresses the energies of life, so that scrofulous constitutions not only suffer from scrofulous complaints, but they have far less power to withstand the attacks of other diseases; consequently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or are aggravated by the same cause.

One quarter of all our people are scrofulous: their persons are invaded by this lurking infection, and their health is undermined by it. To cleanse it from the system we must renovate the blood by an alterative medicine, and invigorate it by healthy food and exercise. Such a medicine we supply in

AYER'S

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla

The most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofula, but also those other affections which arise from it, such as Eruptive and Skin Diseases, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Blains and Boils, Tumors, Tetter and Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Syphilitic and Mercurial Diseases, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Debility, and, indeed, all complaints arising from Vitiated or Impure Blood. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsaparilla is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in contaminated constitutions.

Prepared by JAMES C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass., and sold by JOHN RICE, Milwaukee, J. H. REED & CO., Chicago, and Druggists and Dealers in Medicine everywhere. jan16daw3m

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Later from Pike's Peak.

ST. JOSEPH, July 5.

The Pike's Peak Express returned yesterday afternoon, bringing $15,550 in dust.

By this arrival we get the following summary of news, which has been detained here in consequence of a severe storm prostrating the telegraph line:

DENVER CITY, June 28.—Indian depredations upon straggling parties and on our ranches have become of so frequent occurrence that it was considered advisable to call a meeting of the citizens to consider what was best to be done in the matter.

Such a meeting was held yesterday afternoon, and two of the Arrapahoe chiefs were present part of the time. The outrages in the main consists in taking whatever they desired, when they found unarmed parties, or unable from lack of numbers to resist, and successfully by force, tearing down fences and turning their ponies into gardens and destroying them, and in some cases shooting at the whites, and one or two are known to have been killed by the Indians.

The chiefs thought it very hard to hold them accountable for the bad acts of their own and four other nations now in this vicinity, but as far as their own men were concerned, they would hold them responsible for any injury done to the whites.

An effort was made to pass a resolution to drive them from the country, if they did not leave within three days. More moderate counsel, however, prevailed, and the trouble will no doubt be peaceably arranged.

Mining news remains unchanged. No new or important discoveries have been made.

The difficulties in operating some of the quartz mills recently set up, to advantage, are not yet surmounted.

Quartz mills are arriving daily and going to the mines.

Business very dull.
Money tight and scarce.
Weather hot and showery.

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, July 6.

It has been finally decided to give Mr. Winton, Administration Democrat of North Carolina, the mission to Sardinia.

Judge Stanley, the District Attorney at Cincinnati, who remained in the Convention to which he was sent, and refused to follow Cushman and the rest of the seceders, is to be removed to-morrow or Monday.

Hill, who holds a similar District Attorneyship in North Carolina, and like Stanley did not go out, shares also the same fate.

The representatives of the Great Eastern had a conference here to-day, with some merchants of Norfolk, who are eager to obtain a visit of the Great Eastern to that port.

The Administration had determined to transport the California paper mail by means of revenue cutters co-operating with the Panama R. R. Co. Secretary Cobb has offered to furnish the P. O. Department with the revenue cutter Harriet Lane as one of these steamers. Another authority states that it is understood that an arrangement was concluded yesterday between the P. M. General and Commodore Vanderbilt, whereby the mails are to be shipped from New York to California three times a month, until the 4th of March next.

The mails to the Pacific will be despatched from this city by the steamer which sails on Wednesday next.

New York Matters.

NEW YORK, July 7—3 P. M.

The extensive flouring mills at the corner of Fulton and Furman streets, Brooklyn, near Fulton Ferry, were burned last night; loss $75,000.

Mayor Wood publishes a letter endorsing Douglas' nomination, and proposing a Douglas ticket exclusively in the Middle and Western States, and Breckinridge in the Southern.

Great Lincoln Ratification Meeting.

BUFFALO, July 7—3 P. M.

The Republican ratification meeting last night was the largest and the most enthusiastic political gathering of the campaign.—The Wide Awakes in uniform, bearing torches, made their first appearance in procession.

Hon. Owen Lovejoy, of Ill., was made the orator of the evening.

Removal of Col. North.

ALBANY, July 7—3 P. M.

The rumor of the removal of Col. North, special agent of the Post Office Department, is well founded.

LATEST NEWS!

BY LAST NIGHT'S REPORT

Washington Matters.

WASHINGTON, July 7—9 P. M.

Ellis D. Schnabel, entering the Constitution office this morning, assaulted Gen. Bowman with a stick while the latter was sitting in his chair. One of the clerks in the office effectually came to the rescue, when Schnabel made a hasty retreat. Immediate steps were taken for Schnabel's arrest. The reason for the assault was the publication in yesterday's Constitution, of an article reflecting on the conduct of Schnabel.

Edmund French, late assistant Superintendent of the Treasury extension, under indictment for embezzlement, died here this morning. His trial was to have taken place to-day.

New York Matters.

NEW YORK, July 7—9 P. M.

Henry C. Jarrett, of Baltimore, was this day appointed agent of the Visiting Department of the Great Eastern.

The arrangement with Vanderbilt, for the transportation of the Pacific Mail, is from July 11th to March 4th. He is to receive the postals, and the President is to recommend Congress to give him reasonable compensation besides.

The Democracy in Kentucky.

LOUISVILLE, July 7—9 P. M.

One of the largest meetings ever held here met last night and ratified the nomination of Douglas and Johnson. There were bonfires and cannon.

A convention at Irvine, Estell Co., on the 5th, having representatives from 31 counties, unanimously passed resolutions endorsing Breckinridge and Lane and repudiating Douglas and Johnson.

Disgraceful Affair.

TERRA HAUTE, July 7—9 P. M.

During the proceedings of the Democratic County Convention to-day, Mr. Comwell, the Postmaster, hurled an inkstand at Mr. Cookerty, editor of the Journal, cutting his head badly.

The Chicago Zouaves at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, July 7—9 P. M.

The Chicago Zouaves met with an enthusiastic reception here, and drilled to-day before an immense crowd of people. They leave to-night for Buffalo.

MONETARY.

SATURDAY P. M., July 7th, 1860.

The July payments coming due this week have kept our monetary institutions pretty busy, and very materially reduced the large amount of currency that has been accumulating with the banks since the produce trade commenced slacking. The demand was fully met, and there is still an easy market for all the offerings of good commercial paper at 10 ℘ cent. Exchange has also been in active request, and rates firm at 1¼ premium for New York and Boston sight drafts, and the present state of things does not indicate any permanent reduction of the price until the movement of the new crop commences.

EXCHANGE AT CHICAGO, we see has gone down to 1¼ at the banks, and in the streets it is selling at 1@1¼ premium.

SATURDAY P. M., July 7th, 1860.

The New York market for wheat was inactive to-day, with sales of Milwaukee Club at $1,29@1,31; white flour was reported firmer.

Our wheat market was almost at a stand, and 1c lower, $1,07 the best offer for No. 1 in store, and $1,08 delivered. A few car loads of No. 2 sold at $1,06 in store, but this price was rather above the market, the buyer having immediate want for it, and not finding any more on the market.

Sales of about 700 bbls of flour were reported at $4,80@5,10 for fair to prime country Extra.

The following statement exhibits the daily receipts of flour and grain by railroad for the past week, and also the exports of the same articles by lake for the week:

CHICAGO MARKET, JULY 7TH.—Receipts of the articles named, at Chicago, yesterday, were as follows:

Flour, bbls	818
Wheat, bus	2,658
Corn, bus	69,621
Oats, bus	1,227
Rye, bus	40

The Press & Tribune says in reference to the market:

The Fulton, with Liverpool advices to the 28th ult., was telegraphed this morning. Wheat was 1d lower, and corn was reported dull and slightly declined.

The light receipts of corn to-day rendered the market at the opening buoyant, and the price of No. 1 ran up from 46½@47½c. The arrival of the Fulton, however, checked the upward tendency, and the market for a time became dull till New York came in, when it closed steady at 47@47½c—an advance of ½@1c. About 120,000 bus changed hands at 46½@47c for No. 2 canal afloat; 46½@47½c for No. 1; 45½@45¾c for No. 2; and 42½@43c for rejected. Flour was quiet, and the sales limited at $4,80@4,85 for good spring extras. Wheat was scarce and in good demand, and prices advanced ½@1c, with sales of 14,000 bus at $1,07½ for No. 1 spring; $1,00@1,07½ for No. 2; and 90@91c for rejected. The amount in store here is trifling, and at the close holders were very firm. Oats were in fair request and steady at 26½c in store. Rye and Barley nominal. Highwines firm, with limited sales of city manufactured at 18¾, and country at 18½c. Alcohol 37c. Provisions quiet but firm. Hides unchanged. Wool in good demand and steady.

Freights continue steady. Two propellers were engaged at 8½c for oats, 5c for corn, and 6c for wheat to Buffalo; and five sail vessels at 5c for corn to Buffalo and Dunkirk, and 7c to Oswego.

Weekly Review of Milwaukee Produce Markets.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL, Saturday, P. M., July 7th.

The dull season in western produce markets, the interim between the closing out of the old crops and the incoming of the new, is now fully upon us, and is not relieved by the speculative excitement which prevailed at this time last year. During the past week especially the wheat market has been quite devoid of animation, and prices have declined 3 to 4c from the closing quotations in our last review, the latest advices from Europe indicating drooping markets in England, and more favorable weather for the crops. The foreign demand, however, continues good, and the statistics of clearances from American ports show a liberal export movement.

The closing prices of wheat in our market for each week since the beginning of the year will be seen by the following statement:

With very light receipts the flour market has been even more dull than the wheat market, and so little doing that it is a difficult matter to name any prices. To-day, there were sales of about 700 bbls reported, some of which were made last night at $4,80@5,10 for fair to choice country Extra.

In coarse grains, as well as wheat, the tendency appears to be downward. Buyers for export have limited their offers for oats to 27c delivered, but could not purchase much at this price. Some small quantities have brought 28c in a retail way. Corn is hard to dispose of at 45c. Barley and rye are entirely nominal, as is also grass seed, comparatively little of these articles being in the market or arriving.

The wool market has been firm, but not active, the bulk of the receipts being on account of Eastern buyers. Prices have ranged all the way from 24 to 42c for unwashed native to choice three quarters blood fleece.

The principal transactions of the week in the produce market will be found below:

Milwaukee Lumber Market.

(FOR WEEK ENDING JULY 7TH, 1860.)

The receipts of lumber, shingles, and lath, at this port for the past two weeks and thus far this year, will be seen by the following statement:

	This week.	Last week.	For the season.
Lumber, feet	1,135,000	1,852,000	14,250,030
Shingles	605,000	455,000	6,720,030
Lath, ft	48,000	245,000	981,000

The arrivals have been fully equal to the wants of the trade, and prices by the cargo have settled down to about $6,00 for the best assorted lumber. All that was offered at this price was taken, and some sales were made for delivery next week at the same figure.

The business of the week includes the following sales: 500,000 feet strips for fencing at $5,50;

Cargo of schr. Florence, from Muskegon, at $6;
do do J. Fulton, from Oconto, at $5;
do do Wayne, from Manistee, at $6;
do do Stella, from Two Rivers, at $5,50 for merchantable, and $3,00 for culls; do do C. Harrison, from Manistee, delivered at Racine, at $6,75;
do do Emma, from Manistee, delivered at Racine, at $6,75;

Deck load of brig Sam Hale, from Green Bay, at $6,-35;

Two cargoes to arrive from Oconto, deliverable next week at $6.

Trade at the yards is improving and prices are a little firmer, but not changed. We have no alteration therefore to make in quotations:

PITTSBURG, FT. WAYNE & CHICAGO R. R

NOW COMPLETED TO CHICAGO.

THIS NEW AND DIRECT ROUTE IS now open to New York, Boston, Pittsburg, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington City, Cleveland, Dunkirk, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, and all Eastern Cities; Cincinnati, Columbus, Dayton, Springfield, Urbana, Zanesville, Steubenville, Newark and Wheeling, and all interior towns of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Maryland, New Jersey, &c., making one grand unbroken Railroad line between

CHICAGO AND THE EAST.

FARE AS LOW AS ANY OTHER ROUTE.

☞ Passengers wishing to go by this desirable and pleasant Route, should be particular and ask for tickets by Fort Wayne, avoiding the annoyance of re-checking baggage as by other routes.

Trains leave the depot on VAN BUREN ST., daily as follows:

6:00 A. M., Morning Mail and Express.
7:25 P. M., Night Express.

CHECKING BAGGAGE THROUGH

To Pittsburg, Philadelphia, Baltimore and New York. Connecting directly with trains on the great Pennsylvania Central Railroad, to all Eastern cities. Also, with the Cleveland & Columbus R. R. to Cleveland, Dunkirk, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, via New York Central and New York and Erie Railroads to New York and Boston.

Persons going East will find this route by far the most desirable, both from the advantage in point of distance, variety and beauty of the country through which the road passes, and the avoidance of the changes of cars, and the annoyance of re-checking baggage required by other routes.

Facilities for the transportation of Freight and Live Stock by this route, are unsurpassed. Rates as low as any other route, and with equal dispatch.

Tickets for sale at all the principal ticket offices at the West, and at the Company's office, No. 50 Dearborn st., opposite the Tremont House, Chicago, and at the Union Ticket office, No. 220 East Water St., Milwaukee.
